Client Rights and Important Information:

You are entitled to receive information from me about my methods of therapy, techniques I use, the duration of your therapy (if I can determine it), and my fee structure. Please ask if you would like to receive this information.

You can seek a second opinion from another therapist or terminate at any time.

In a professional relationship (such as ours), sexual intimacy between a counselor and a client is never appropriate. If sexual intimacy occurs, it should be reported to the State Grievance Board.

The information provided by you, the client, is legally confidential except in certain specific situations including, but not limited to, threatening yourself or others, a court ordered subpoena, sexual/physical/child/elder/disabled abuse.

If you have any questions or would like additional information, please feel free to ask.

I have read the preceding information and I understand my rights as a client.
